Wells-next-the-Sea Information

Wells is a delightful town on the Norfolk coast with wide open skies and exhilarating air. It is wonderful for bird watching and sailing. Children love to catch crabs from the quay and there is a lovely sandy beach. It is an ideal base to explore Norfolk as there are numerous interesting places to visit for young and not so young. Blakeney Point Bird Sanctuary and the seals, National Trust properties, Holkham pine forest and beach, to name but a few.
